Your Polling Place Is Changing

For voters in Precinct 14, Sample County, Florida

If you are registered to vote in Precinct 14, the place where you vote in person on Election Day is moving. This place is called your polling place.

A precinct is the voting area where you live. Your precinct decides which polling place is yours.

Where to vote

New polling place: Placeholder Public Library, 200 Example Avenue, Sampleton

Old polling place: Example Community Center, 100 Sample Way, Sampleton

When the change starts

The change starts with the Special Election on Tuesday, March 10, 2099.

Placeholder Public Library will stay your polling place for later elections, too, until you are told about another change.

Voting hours on Election Day

- Polling places open at 7:00 a.m.
- Polling places close at 7:00 p.m.
- If you are in line when voting closes at 7:00 p.m., you will still be allowed to vote.

Watch your mail

A notice about this change will be mailed to every household that has a registered voter in Precinct 14. It will be mailed no later than Tuesday, February 24, 2099.

Check where you vote
